Happy New Year! And an exciting New Year it will be for our local and national SHRM efforts! We are so happy to have you as a member of the Jayhawk Chapter of SHRM, and I'm looking forward to serving you and your interests in the coming year.

Pressing on many of our minds is the new SHRM - CP and SHRM -SCP certifications. I had an opportunity to become certified when I was at the national SHRM leadership conference this past November. It is very different than the PHR/SPHR. I would encourage each of you to reach out to our Certification Director Dennis Meier if you have questions. I'm happy to speak with you about the new certification as well. Years ago, I was the first member to be certified in our chapter, and I can now say that I'm the first person in the chapter to be certified with the new SHRM designation. That either makes me "long in the tooth" or just your average HR geek!—probably both!

With the announcement from Pachamama's about their business closing down, rest assured that we are actively looking for a new location to meet your needs. Who knows, by the time this is printed, we may have a decision regarding to where we will move our meetings.

I'm excited about the programs that are being planned for the coming year. Whether you have technical questions regarding HR practice areas, e.g., Benefits, Business Leadership & Strategy, Compensation, Diversity, Employee/Labor Relations, Organizational & Employee Development, Safety & Security, Technology, Staffing Management or you just look forward to networking with your peers, we are so glad to have you and hope that we continue to meet your needs. If you have any suggestions or thoughts, please don't hesitate to ever drop me a line at kcalvert@ljworld.com.

To anticipating good things in 2015!

Sincerely,

Kelly Calvert, SPHR, SHRM-SCP

Top 10 New Year's Resolutions

New Year's Eve has always been a time for looking back to the past, and more importantly, forward to the coming year. It's a time to reflect on the changes we want (or need) to make and resolve to follow through on those changes. Did your New Year resolutions make the top ten list?

1. Spend time with family & friends
2. Fit in Fitness
3. Tame the bulge
4. Quit Smoking
5. Enjoy life more
6. Quit drinking
7. Get out of debt
8. Learn something new
9. Help others
10. Get organized

We would like to thank everyone who has already renewed their membership for 2015! As a reminder, our standard membership runs from January 1st through December 31st. If you haven't done so, please take a moment now to renew, so you can continue to take advantage of the benefits of local membership through 2015.

You are able to renew your membership in one of two ways – online or by mail, by completing a paper application. With our website currently under construction, our online renewal process has slightly changed. You can complete the online registration form at www.jayhawkshrm.org, but instead of making payment at that time, you will receive an invoice from our VP of Finance, Barry Kingery. Or if you prefer to renew by paper, an application may be acquired by emailing myself directly at membership@jayhawkshrm.org. If you opt to pursue the latter, please mail your application with due payment to:

Jayhawk SHRM
P.O. Box 442033
Lawrence, KS 66044

We hope that you continue to be a part of it and renew your membership for 2015! It is going to be a very exciting year for our chapter!!!

Chapter Sponsorship – “Silver, and Gold, and Diamonds--Oh My!”

I need your help.

You know those sales people whose job it is to contact HR professionals? They are precisely the people who we should invite to sponsor our SHRM meetings, newsletters and events. Once upon a time, an old prospector kept having rock slides block the entrance to his gold mine, and in his fury he would dump the rubble over the edge of a cliff. One day he discovered that there was silver in those rocks! Have you heard the term “Standing in your own acre of diamonds?” Perhaps it's a stretch to call sales people an acre of diamonds, but if their goals can align with our goals—that would be good for everybody!

Please forward their emails or contact information to me—put “SHRM Sponsor” or something like that in the Subject line—and I will reach out to them. Send them to: psteimle@ljworld.com

Warm regards,

Peter Steimle

Thinking about Pursuing HR Certification?

As we begin 2015, you may be considering pursuing HR certification to add to your credentials. Effective 1/5/2015, you will now have options regarding the source of your certification. Certification from the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI) continues to be available. HRCI was established in 1976. In addition, SHRM has decided to venture into the world of HR certification offering two levels of certification, SHRM-CP (Certified Professional) and SHRM-SCP (Senior Certified Professional). For those who currently possess HRCI certification, SHRM is extending the opportunity to obtain your initial SHRM certification at no additional expense. You will need to (1) document that your current certification is in good standing, (2) sign the Code of Ethics, and (3) complete a brief online tutorial focusing on HR competencies. You can go to shrmcertification.org/pathway for details on how to add the new credentials. For those seeking new certification, details regarding the certification process can be found at shrmcertification.org/2015.

For those seeking certification through HRCI, you can go to the HRCI website, www.hrci.org, to access all of the information needed to work through the process of certification or recertification. This site is a very helpful resource regarding the certification process for HRCI.

The Jayhawk SHRM chapter will continue to seek to provide meaningful learning opportunities that can be used to earn recertification credits for either HRCI or SHRM. The Jayhawk SHRM chapter has been designated a preferred provider of Professional Development Credits (PDC's) that can be used for recertification of the SHRM-CP and SHRM-SCP.

Please contact Dennis Meier, Certification Chair if you have questions

Member Spotlight

This month we are beginning our Spotlight section of the newsletter as a way for us to get to know our members a little better. We had two fantastic ladies volunteer to go first.

Katie Marx is an Account Executive with QPS Employment Group. She got involved in HR about five years ago when she worked for an independent IT training company. Katie has a passion for assisting others and has the opportunity at QPS to be a resource for her clients by working with employed and unemployed individuals to fill both direct hire and temporary needs. She credits her husband, Ryan, with being influential in shaping the type of professional she is today and enjoys spending time with him and her two sons when she is not at work. In the New Year, Katie looks forward to building and strengthening the relationships in the community and tying both Kansas City and Lawrence together.

Jennifer Alexander (right) started in HR about seven years ago when she applied for an HR Assistant position at PROSOCO where she was working as a receptionist. She completed her BA in Business Administration last year and is currently an HR Specialist. PROSOCO manufactures products for the construction industry such as those that clean and protect concrete and make building envelopes air- and water- tight. She draws inspiration from her manager and mentor, Ann Connor and enjoys helping the employees of PROSOCO achieve the work life balance that is valued by the company. When not working, Jennifer enjoys a number of activities including boating, baking, and spending time with her husband Travis and 2 year old son. In 2015, she will enjoy seeing PROSOCO's rebirth and rebranding of its logo and product packaging filter its way across the USA. She has another birth scheduled next year as well-a daughter due in April.
